Jeanne Cardinal lit a candle in honor of Carolyn.

When I was a new resident, Carolyn was the first to welcome me. She always made you think she was just tickled to see you. I had the great good fortune to run into Carolyn and Bob a couple weeks before her passing. In typical fashion she quickly turned the conversation away from herself and asked about my goings on. If ever there was a role model of Christian goodness and selflessness, Carolyn qualifies and I'm sure she's now mentoring the angels full time. Jeanne Cardinal and Hank Henne

What a blessing to have had Carolyn in our lives these past 6 years. We will miss her so..... She was truly one of the sweetest people we have ever met. She always had a smile on her face, a twinkle in her eye and kind words to share. Her great courage, amazing strength and unending faith in God, has been an inspiration to us and we are better people for having known her. Now at peace, we believe she is smiling down on Bob, her family and friends, knowing that the joys of heaven surpass all tears. Steve and Coleen Enz

Carolyn was possibly the kindest person I have ever met. I never heard her say anything negative about anyone. Maybe she was really an angel amongst us. Perhaps one of the greatest miracles or gifts she was given, was the gift of additional time with her family. She was able to see her grandchildren grow a bit, watch her children marry and have families of their own and was given some wonderful years with Bob. She will be missed. Diana and Jeff Boyd

In our eyes, Carolyn was an angel sent here to be with us on earth. She was always thinking of others and never had anything negative to say about anyone. Her smile would light up a room. We feel fortunate that she was a part of our lives, even though that time was too brief. Her unwavering faith was an inspiration to all who knew her. She will be truly missed.
