Jack And Merle Slusher posted:

Ralph and Marian Mach were our next-door neighbors during almost nine years that we lived at The Plantation. We feel that God led us to that particular place and time and allowed us to enjoy the wonderful relationship we had with this gracious and sincere couple. We truly treasured their friendship and admired Ralph's technique in keeping their lawn so manicured and lovely. Our sincere love, prayers and sympathy is extended to Marian and family, sister Joyce, and pray God's comforting hand to be upon them. We thank our God for every remembrance of them.
