Brenda Joyce Bickett Bellin

APR 9, 1945 - MAR 16, 2016

Brenda Joyce Bickett Bellin age 70 passed away Wednesday, March 16, 2016 in Leesburg, Florida. Brenda was born in Raywick, Kentucky and moved to the Leesburg area full time in 2008 from Elizabethtown, Kentucky. She was a retired legal secretary. Brenda was a person of deep faith and attended the Real Life Christian Church in Clermont, Florida. Before moving to Florida she served two terms as a Lay Director with the Emmaus program, served her church as a Sunday School Teacher, Youth Leader, Women's Ministry Leader, and as a Christian Comedian. She will be remembered by those closest to her for her love of life and kind heart and her willingness to help others. She was also an avid card player and regularly played Games like Hand and Foot and Shang high with her close friends and family. Traveling and reading were also things she really enjoyed.

She is survived by her loving husband of nearly 52 years – Bill; Sons – Jeff (Tara) Bellin of Elizabethtown, KY; and Jeremy (Michele) Bellin of Greenwood, IN; siblings – Wanda (Aubin) Mattingly of Rineyville, KY; Norman (Marge) Bickett of Mishawaka, IN; Ann (Lee) Agee of Bloomfield, KY; Marice (Jim) Wylie of Hubbard, OH; Dorothy (Charlie) Hart of Elizabethtown, KY; and Margaret (Frank) Cecil of Howardstown, KY; 4 grandchildren – Ashlen, Madison, Callie Anne, and Jeffery Bellin, Jr.

Page-Theus Funeral Home and Cremation Services have been entrusted with all arrangements.

Bonnie McCain posted:

Brenda was my life saver when I was a youth. What she brought to Northside was never replaced. I will always be grateful for her friendship. May God keep her as the angel she was until we can see her again.
