Neven you were one of my greatest comrades throughout my life. We had many great memorable moments serving together in Germany. I wish I were able to see you again. Everyday that passes the simplest things throughout my day trigger my memories of us and all I can see is that giant, squinty eyed smile when whatever we were doing. From trips throughout Germany or just the simple nights we would throw some drinks back and just play Gears of War or Borderlands until it was time for chow the next morning. If only we had one more chance to have a drink, kick back and share these memories together. Never forgotten brother and God speed!

So very sad that just as we were all finally physically close enough to spend time together and create some wonderful memories, you are gone. So many plans that you and your cousins were making are never going to happen. We are all so very grateful for few months that we did have and we will cherish every minute that we did spend together. Love and miss you very much, Uncle Jim and Aunt Bunny
