I have so many wonderful memories of my Aunt Pauline. She was a second mother to me. She was always there, with my mother, when I experienced the most important events of my life - the death of my brother, my marriage, the birth of my first child, my divorce, the death of my father. My Aunt Pauline was always there to comfort me, to hold my hand and to laugh with me when I needed a good one!!! I will carry her with me always. I loved her so much. The last time I saw her, I wish I had held her a little longer and loved her a little bit more. Thank you so much for your love!!!
