Edward John Thompson Jr.

MAY 11, 1934 - MAY 14, 2017

Loving husband, father, grandfather and friend, Edward “Jack” Thompson, 83, passed away on May 14, 2017. Born May 11, 1934, in Bryn Mahr, PA, attended high school in Henniker and Warner, NH and graduated from University of New Hampshire in 1956. After serving in the U.S. Army, Ed pursued a career in Insurance, 15 years with United Life & Accident Ins. Co., in Concord, NH and eventually retiring, 24 years later, as VP for Boston Mutual Life Ins. Co. in Canton, MA, in 1998.

Ed was preceded in death by his parents, Virginia Bohr and Edward John Thompson, Sr., brother, William Bohr Thompson and nephew, Chuck Monbleau.

He is survived by his spouse of 58 years, Sandy Thompson, his sons, Kevin (Joy), Steve (Gaby) and David Thompson (Leigh), Grandchildren, Brittney deCharmoy (Marc), Shelby & Kurt; Ryan & Tyler; Sarah Piper (Bruce), Beverly & Conner Thompson and great-grandsons, Alex and Zach Piper. He will also be missed by his only sister, Sally, his cousins, Sara Bollman and MaryAnne Scott and nieces and nephews.

Ed loved people and staying active. He especially loved tennis and golf through the years, from Wellfleet on Cape Cod to Estero, FL and The Villages. Ed was also a passionate New England Sports Fan. His “crooked” grin and presence will be missed by family and dear friends.

The Thompson Family extends a tremendous Thank You to the caring staff of Cornerstone Hospice and the Lane Purcell Hospice House. In lieu of flowers donations to Cornerstone Hospice would be appreciated: donate.cshospice.org

A celebration of Life will be held Monday, June 5, 2017, at the Page-Theus Funeral Home, 914 W Main St., Leesburg, FL 34748

A show about the 1967 Impossible Dream Red Sox was on the MLB channel on 7/09/17. It highlighted how that team launched Red Sox Nation. Dad would've loved seeing it. Miss talking baseball with you dad. David

A first rate mentor, boss and friend. We shared our 'country folk' roots - his from NH and mine from VT. Ed enjoyed pointing out their hidden smarts, often playing the role of the country bumpkin to their advantage when negotiating and doing business. In my three years in the Boston Mutual Home Office, I spent every summer half-Friday in Ed's office conversing about almost everything - he had the common touch with real smarts and abilities. And Sandy ... the Boys ... what can be said about their loving relationships and care for one another.I'm sorry for their loss which I share. It was my great privilege to have known Ed Thompson.
