I have many good memories of mu Uncle Clyde. And my Aunt Pat too. Clyde helped teach me to play baseball and basketball. My dad and I used to go to watch him play softball. Fast pitch, with great players. He was a fine athlete, and a wonderful coach too.Aunt Pat, please know that I will miss him and that you will be in our thoughts. We remember visiting you in Florida with the kids. And when you loaned us your van so Karen, the kids and I could all go to Wildwood for a vacation. You and Clyde were always so generous to us, and we appreciated it. Take care of yourself.Love,Michael Yates

My deepest condolences to Aunt Pat on the passing of Uncle Clyde. I remember going to Pirates games with Aunt Pat and Uncle Clyde and watching him play softball. I remember the family picnics at their house where all of us would play baseball. May God bless and comfort you, Aunt Pat.
