What can I say about a man that has meant so much to me and my family. My mind floods with so many memories. Like how uncle Estill and dad would laugh at their own stories, how he always called my mom Mrs Williams, and how he would pray for everyone. He truly loved the Lord! I love and miss him. Till we meet again in heaven, my favorite Uncle.Love always,Melissa Williams

My Personal Tribute:Estill was one of my favorite uncles. He was a light to all who knew him. I always enjoyed my conversations with him. I miss him a great deal, although I lived nearly a thousand miles away. I loved listening to his stories. His stories always had a depth of meaning that made me feel closer to God, to him, and to the rest of my family in Florida and in New York. I will meet him again in heaven. I have no doubts about that fact. Estill is in heaven which is the only peace I have about him being absent from this earth. Prayers and condolences to my cousins in Florida and in New York. I love you all.Sincerely,Your cousin/Della (Estill's sister's daughter)Lisa (Young) PaxtonBox 144 Coon Branch RoadPikeville, KY 41501
