Rosemary and I met in 1956 when we worked at Behr-Mannings in Watervliet. We went to Lake George every weekend in the summer and vacationed in Virginia Beach. Rosemary loved to dance and dance she could. Jitter-bug, Cha-Cha, Polka you name it she never missed a beat. She and Jim were the perfect couple and Brian and I enjoyed living across the street from them on Monroe Ave. So many fun memories, R-I-P my friend until the day comes when we can dance again ,this time I'll lead LOL!!

We were neighbors of Rosemary and Jim in Liverpool NY and I can still hear her wonderful laugh and she was always laughing. - you were fun, generous and never heard her say anything negative. RIP good neighbor
