Condolences to the family of Carl Lamb. We were neighbors of he and Nancy, and we bowled together for a while. Both were such fun to be around and I hold dear the sight of Nancy sitting on Carl's lap as he wheeled to our parties at the clubhouse. Rip, Carl With love, Ellie and Don Brennan

Sharing grandchildren with Carl and Nancy is a pleasure and a tribute to legacy they left behind. Carl always had a strong opinion and was open to discussing any current event. Even though he was a tough guy, he showed his love especially to his wife. No doubt he will be a 'missed grandpa'. Rest In Peace Carl as now your pain is gone. Bart and June Pasini
