Harriet (Harry) was the best, a devoted woman of God. When times were rough Harriet was there at every given moment. Judy and I will always remember her and Pastor Browne and their friendship. She is in glory land with her husband at Christmas, what a great feeling it has to be for her.

It is difficult to find words other than to say she exemplified Jesus in her life and no doubt heard those glorious words, "well done good and faithful servant." She was a treasure and blessing to many. Her love lives on. I am so glad I had the honor of knowing her.
