It is with sadness that we are writing this on behalf of our dear brother Andrew. Andrew was a very determined person whom suffered with pain throughout his life yet was a very successful man. After high school he pursued a career in computer programming knowing in advance how the world was changing. He worked his way up to becoming the Vice President at the Bank of New York as a systems analyst. Andrew was a brilliant man with a very sharp mind. He struggled daily to get back and forth to New York for almost 25 years until the World Trade Center was attacked. Shortly thereafter Andrew retired and spent his life in the loving care of his parents, siblings, nieces and nephew 's until he married Kathleen. His success led to him building a beautiful home in Leesburg Florida where he spent the final years of his life with his wife Kathleen. He always enjoyed traveling and spending time with family. Andrew lived most of his life in NJ and enjoyed the moments he spent with his niece's Brielle and Isabella and with his nephew's Alex and Luke whom he loved dearly. Isabella and Luke were fortunate to spend time with him when he moved to Florida. Unfortunately he will no longer be able to open up his home to them but their memories of their uncle are very fond. Thank you for all you have done for us and our families. We will always love you. Rest In Peace Our dear brother Your loving sister's Cynthia Foley and Lenore Johnston

I remember first meeting Andrew when I was working in his residential building in Secaucus. Andrew and Kathleen were the sweetest couple in the world. She would always bring Andrew to the pool early in the morning. He loved the pool. I would look forward to chatting with them, as they always brightened up my day. I was very fortunate to have met them, and I soon came to find out Andrew's funny sense of humor. Andrew was a kind soul, everyone in the building loved him. He was full of jokes and good humor. He was caring and compassionate towards others, and he loved his wife Kathleen very much. May your soul rest in eternal peace, knowing that one day we will all meet again. We love you Andrew ~your friend Lucio~

My Andy. I remember meeting you on Access Link with Kathy. Whenever I saw your name for pick up it made my day. You were the funniest passenger I had. Always telling me which way to go when you knew I wasn't allowed to listen and telling me what a lousy driver I was. You knew how to make braking the rules fun. Thank you letting me hold on to the memory of allowing me into your life and being friends. I know how particular you were in that area. May you rest in the presence of God and know your Kathy will not be alone. Miss your voice my friend. Forever in my heart. ❤️
