To Pete, Bernadette, Pierre, Melissa, Al, Negro, Titi Irma and the whole family, I'm praying for strength and comfort for you all. Irma lived, laughed and dance like there was no tomorrow. So when you do something you know she would have loved to do, laughed so hard like she would have and dance just to have fun, it's just how Irma would want it. Someone just said to me "When we lose someone we love, we must learn not to live without them, but to live the love they left behind." She left a lot of love behind, so I hope to pay it forward with leaving love everywhere I go. God Bless You All and know you were and still are loved 😊🙏❤️
