Vernon Oliver Dinnall

FEB 23, 1956 - MAR 2, 2022

Vernon Oliver Dinnall (more lovingly known as Paul), passed away at Auburn Hospital in Cambridge, MA on March 2, 2022 in Boston, MA. Paul was born on February 23, 1956 in Spaulding Clarendon, Jamaica to his parents Edward Dinnall and Mavis Dinnall (nee Lindo).

Paul is survived by his mother - Mavis; loving children - Twana, Joudy-Ann and Gordon; grandchildren - Nia and Caroline; and brothers - Ramon and Philip. He was preceded in death by his father - Edward.

Paul will be remembered for his generosity, humor and endearing commitment to friendship. This is quite evident in his friendships forged at Clarendon College, Mico Teachers' College and those formed in his latter years. His legacy will be long remembered and his impact forever felt. May the angels welcome him and light perpetual shines on him.

Memorial services will be held at Page-Theus Funeral Home starting at 10:00am, with the chapel opening at 9:00 AM with a graveside service at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens at 11:30 AM. Details for the reception to be held directly after the ceremony will be shared in the near future.

For anyone unable to attend the services, a live stream will be available for the chapel service by following the link below:

Paul was a great, lovable, and always jovial friend. How well I remember him from our young days at Kellits, Clarendon! Although we lost touch over the long years, my fond memories of the Dinnall family persist. I look back through the years at the 3 brothers, Ramon, Paul and Phillip and am so saddened to hear of this great loss to the family. Aunt Mavis, I grieve with you from afar. My deepest condolences to his entire family. May God bless you all, and comfort you. Paul, my friend, Rest In Peace. We'll see you some day on the other side.
