Clement McCann

JUN 22, 1936 - SEP 10, 2022

Clement McCann passed away September 10th, 2022, at his home in Leesburg, FL.

Clement was born in Glasgow, Scotland to his parents, Clement Sr and Margaret McCann. He would later immigrate to the United States and become a stone mason, even working on a lot of the stonework around the Twin Towers in New York City.

In 1997, Clement would marry his loving wife, Sharon. They would call Tamarac, FL home before moving to Leesburg, FL. He prided himself as a handyman, going as far as building a get away home in Ocala, FL. He enjoyed fishing, traveling, golf and watching soccer.

Clement is survived by his wife, Sharon; children, Clement Jr, Alison, Paul, Jennifer and Cynthia; 11 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren; and many friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, brother, Danny McCann, and his best friend, his dog, Oscar.

A memorial service will be held at Page-Theus Funeral Home at a later time.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made in Clement's name to the Humane Society or any other animal related volunteer group.
