Wow! I can't believe what I'm reading! But I'll be honest, I'm absolutely relieved that I'll never have to cross paths with him again. He is my estranged husband. I guess I am a widow now. May everyone he terrorized be able to find the peace they need to move on.

Get my nieces photos off of this post. And may God help you to realize the terror he imposed on everyone around him.

Son, This is the hardest thing a parent could ever do. I am so heartbroken because you could have had such a bright future because there wasn't anything you could not master. You were always so loving, a great father and willing to help anyone in need. Your entire family will miss your laughter, smiles and tears and hugs. Words cannot express the grief I have and the only thing that brings me comfort is knowing you are know walking hand in hand with Grandma and you will never feel pain or sorrow again because you are with our Lord and Savior in paradise.All my love and many tears,Mom
