Ann Belle was my idol. She was beautiful, a stewardess and a big sister to my sister and me. My mother and her mother were college roommates and best friends. Her parents introduced my parents. We all remained close throughout life. Sadly I am the last one left. It was an honor for me to do all I could to help her at the end of her life. I am sad but know she is out of pain. I know there was great joy in heaven as she was united with Tom, her family and her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I love you. Nancy Pugh, Boynton Beach, FL.

Ann Belle Perry Morgan. You were a grand gal! Cousin to my Dad, niece to my Grandparents, great niece to my Great Grandparents, and an inspiration to us all. How I cherished reconnecting with you these last few years. I'm so sad we couldn't see each other in person. I can't imagine the family reunion you are enjoying now. So until we meet again, God bless you! Florence Anne, Shavertown PA
