Jackie Eugene Henderson

MAR 5, 1950 - FEB 3, 2023

Jackie Eugene Henderson, 72, of Wildwood, FL, passed away on February 3, 2023. Jackie was born on March 5, 1950, in Hamilton County, Illinois to his loving parents; Earnest and Cleta (Vanwinkle) Henderson.

Jackie had been a resident of Wildwood for over twenty years. He was of the Methodist faith and also a member of the American Legion. He was a very proud United States Marine. Jackie enjoyed spending his time fishing and working in wood carpentry. He was known as being a “Jack of all trades”, he worked for many years as a truck driver as well as building various roads around his community in Wildwood.

Jackie was a selfless and kindhearted man; he would do anything to help anyone. He was an exceptional fatherly figure to not only his own beloved children, but to others as well. He was a devoted and loving father and grandfather.

Jackie will be remembered by many as always having a hat, cowboy boots, and his tobacco chew. As well as hosting Sunday breakfasts at home, every Sunday, to his beloved family with a hearty and home cooked meal.

Jackie is survived by his adoring wife of over 32 years; Charlene Henderson, as well as four sons: Nathan, Nicholas, Wade, and Nicholas, a brother; Rickey Henderson, four sisters; Dixie Henderson, Piper (Gordon) Durham, Jill Henderson, and Mitzie (Randy) Holler, as well as three precious grandchildren.
