Mike Richardson

Mike Richardson passed away August 1, 2023. He was 71. He was born in Hallsville, Texas. He was a heavy equipment operator in the army for four years. After leaving the military, he moved his family to Florida. He became a master gardener for Walt Disney World for 8 years. After leaving Disney, he had two successful landscaping businesses. He worked for South Bay HOA and Granada maintenance for 20 plus years. He is predeceased in death by his mother Mary and son Tex Richardson. He is survived by his wife Pat, his father James A, both of Clermont. A son, Tony/Tina, one grandson, Cody all from Tavares. Mike was being cared for by Compassionate Care Hospice. A unmeasurable amount of special thanks goes to Greg his aid, and Crystal his nurse. Mike would want to be remembered most by his Butterfly Meadows dishes and Hardee's "burnt" biscuits.

There will no service or ceremony.

Mike helped take care of Nina and called her Momma. She liked him and he treated her well. He treated Pat well and they had a good relationship.
