nature and animals. Throughout her life she was known for establishing homes for a multitude of misplaced animals. Having a lifelong passion for horses Nita enjoyed her affiliation with the Orlando Arabian Horse Association

Many enjoyed Nita's sense of humor often relating to life's stories.

Most important to Nita was her love of the Lord. In knowing her you witnessed an unwavering demonstration of faith as life presented itself.

Much of Nita's life was dedicated to service and the hands on care of others, especially in the care of her parents.

Her involvement at the Christian Service Center of Orlando would find Nita serving and then sitting down and sharing a meal with the homeless.

As a Rotarian she was involved with the “Home At Last” projects building mortgage free homes for combat wounded veterans.

During the twilight of her life Nita relished in the joy of Gods Blessing reuniting her
