Uncle Ralph. You were a good man. Your passion for the unborn will be one of your legacies. Growing up, we didn't see you much as you were somewhere across the globe, working with I think was the Merchant Marines. You'd "pop in" every year or so and take all of your brothers and sisters along with us nieces and nephews to a nice restaurant and treat everyone. Those visits remain to this day, (some 40 years later) highlights of my younger years. May God grant you His mercy. Bill Renzulli###imported-begin##BILL RENZULLI JR##imported-end##
