Dear Carl & family, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Cindy & I were reminiscing the other day about the good times we shared over the years with Aunt Alta, Uncle Chink, Pappy & Mammy Gillner. And we remember your visits to the little house in Lenhartsville where the kids were instructed to play "quietly" in the back bedroom while the grown ups sat around talking in the living room. We talked about Dad & Uncle Dick and smiled to think of their heavenly reunion with Joanne. We're praying for you and your family that sweet memories and love of Jesus will be your comfort now and in the days to come. Love & Blessings, Debbie for all##imported-begin##Gene & Deborah Wright and family##imported-end##

Carl, We were so sad to hear of Joannes passing. We remember when we stopped by your house in Florida and you guys turned us on to the Clam Bake at the Disney Resorts. It reminded us of all the clams we enjoyed eating in PA. We pray God gives you the Peace that passes understanding. Our Deepest Sympathys to you and your family. Love Mike and Wendy Gillner##imported-begin##Mike and Wendy Gillner##imported-end##
