We just wanted to say that Mom will be missed and always loved. She grew up in an era that said you live at home, find a nice man, get married, buy a house, have children and live happily ever after. Well for her and many women so much had to be given up of her own self to achieve this. So she became the "little wife" and the "doting mother" to live the life in the house with the "white pickett fence" with no complaints. She was somebody for everyone else. Then a day comes, the kids are grown and have lives of their own. Things are not so happy being the wife anymore because they have grown far apart through no fault of their own. For the first time in her life she has to stand on her own two feet. It was not easy but she found Jesus Christ and her world became so much better. Any other obstacle in life that came her way she did not fear because she knew God was on her side. Mom you are Safely Home. Thank you so much for everything. We know you are happy being with the Lord. (Please put in a good word for us) WE NEED IT !!##imported-begin##Michael & JoEllen Kaub##imported-end##
