Dear Liz,Your friend Diane was so kind to call me and offer to send your last letter to me (address snafu). You were a wonderful friend to me and my family through all the years that I got to know you. We had some great times at TRW (now NGC) working on all those wonderful reports!!? Bob and I both liked visiting your Ramona home. Your past experiences never ceased to amaze me. You were one of a kind with a mind that encompassed so much knowledge. Thank you for being Liz. Jackie E. (granddaughter when she was about 3) still remembers sitting on the floor with you and playing -- We have pictures of you two.JK##imported-begin##Jackie George##imported-end##

My Aunt Betty had a zest for life. She loved to travel, and pulled her sister, Lillian, along on many adventures across the United States & Europe. She could hold her own in any discussion, be it sports, history, or politics. Some of the brightest moments in the Nussbaum family were when Aunt Betty came into town! It was always a cause for celebration. I think she was more important to, and loved by, her nephews and nieces than she realized. We shared many memories together of the family that went before us. I will miss our talks. Most of all auntie, I will miss you.love ya ,Liz###imported-begin##Elizabeth nussbaum Danko###imported-end##
