Jordan John Duick

JAN 20, 1946 - MAR 25, 2012

Jordan 'Jody' J. Duick passed away on Sunday, March 25, 2012 in Leesburg, FL at the age of 66. Jody was born on January 20, 1946 in Blakely/Olyphant, PA to the late William and Julia Duick. He was a graduate of Woodbridge Sr. High School class of '64' and served his country in the U.S. Army from 1966 to 1968 working in communications in Italy. Jody was employed for 41 years by GlaxoSmithKline and retiring in 2006. After retiring, he decided to move south, and left Hanover, PA for Leesburg, FL where he attended services at St. Paul's Catholic Church. Jody was an avid bowler and bowled two 300 games during his lifetime, and was also a very low handicapped golfer. In his spare time he enjoyed woodworking, but his greatest love was his family, especially his grandchildren. Jody is survived by his loving wife of 44 years Marie Duick, one son; Bill (Shannon) Duick of York, PA, and one daughter Michele (Nathan) Arnold of Reidsville, NC. He is also survived by one brother William Duick of Sun City, FL and three grandsons; Zachary and Ethan Duick and James Jordan 'Jamie' Arnold. A memorial service for Mr. Duick will be held on Friday, March 30, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. in the Grand Hall of Pennbrooke Fairways Community. In lieu of flowers the family has requested memorials in Jody's honor be directed to the Deaf and Hearing Services of Lake & Sumter Counties 220 S. 9th St. Leesburg, FL 34748. I just finished reandig my Jan 2007 issue of Wired and thought of you guys. It's an issue devoted to The Science of Human Enhancement and there's an article on Dean Karnazes and his 12 secrets to his success. Yeah, it's a tech mag but this issue was devoted to el cuerpo humano. I know it's 1255am but i'm at work and this is what im' doing while waiting for a really late flight, reandig. still got over an hour to wait, guess i'll watch tv now##imported-begin##Xamot##imported-end##

Hello Tahlea, I just downloaded all your posadcts from itunes and listened to the first one. I have to tell you, your voice and accent make the podcast pleasing if nothing else did. But, I was so touched by your story of coming out to your Mom, and also her response to you. My family wouldn't be so understanding, I would have been one of those you hear of being disowned. I am new to learning of the Wiccan path, and am looking forward to hearing more of your posadcts. Blessed be.

I had the pleasure of being introduced to Jody in 1990 when he accepted a transfer to Hanover, PA. for SmithKline Beecham. I had just been hired for their new facility in Hanover. Jody was quick to make me feel at home and took me by the hand and introduced me to his world. Over the next 16 years Jody and I worked together and accomplished many successes too numerous to mention. Let me remember some of our best times...Jody, Marie, Michelle & Bill having dinner at Inn 94 when he first came to town. Drinks and laughs at Klinger's...and Bill Bateman's too. Shooting pool and listening to Jody's "reel to reel" in his basement. Seeing Jody's Christmas lights, WOW! Seeing Marie's Christmas houses, on the shelves Jody built in their new home in Hanover. Congratulating Jody on his 1st 300 game. My life has been enriched because Jody was a part of it. I'll miss him.##imported-begin##Greg McCauley##imported-end##

Marie and family, you have my deepest sympathy. Jody was a true gentleman and one of the friendliest easy going persons that I have ever been associated with. He was very proud of his family and heritage. I remember back in our GSK days him taking me to your home in Hanover to meet you and Jody's mom. May he rest in peace.##imported-begin##Bill Ramos##imported-end##
