Rodney Berger Jr.

SEP 13, 1969 - SEP 20, 2024

Rodney Berger Jr., 55, of Leesburg, FL, passed away peacefully at home on September 20, 2024. Rodney was born on September 13, 1969, in Fairfax, VA, to his loving parents Rod and Kathy Berger.

Rodney was of the Lutheran faith and has been a resident of Florida for about 20 years. He worked for many years in sales and advertising.

Rodney was a very outgoing and charismatic man, he enjoyed spending his time among friends and family and playing golf. He was a big sports fan and loved supporting his team; The Washington Redskins. He also loved hot rod cars and would take pleasure in having a glass of red wine by the beach.

Rodney had a good sense of style and was known to be a tidy and organized man. He was also very family oriented and will be missed in his group chat with his father, brother and nephew, which he would communicate with daily and for always having a smile on his face.

Rodney is survived by his parents; Rod and Kathy Berger, his brother; Doug and his wife Wanda, as well as a nephew and niece: Austin and Brianna and many loving aunts, uncles and cousins.
