I remember how much Red loved decorating the property in Yalaha for Christmas. People would come from far and wide to ride by and see the wonderful displays. I think he was feeling hangry in this picture! Red, you will be missed!

I loved seeing him in his crocodile boots and cowboy hat! He had the most entertaining stories of his life on the road with different bands and celebrities! He could be incredibly stubborn, and downright difficult to work with at times, but he was a great guy and a real character. He will be missed. Dr. Julie Vavruska

Grandpa Red was an amazing person. He taught me so much. From how to cuss (which of course got my mama called to the school) to how to fish. He also taught me how to play a practical joke. I once watched him chase grandma around with a garter snake from her garden. I already miss him more than words can express.

Hangin' in, hangin' out, and hangin' on.... Red's favorite phrase. He was such a magnificent addition to the Hall clan. Never to be forgotten and always to be loved. We are so grateful that you met and married my aunt Diana and made her so very happy.

I knew "Red" through the Lady Lake Barber Shop, I cut his hair for the past 8 years, he would tell me stories of when he used to drive the bus for the entertainers. He was a lovely man. I will miss his visits. With love Lynn Hicks

My sincerest condolences. I met Red roughly 23 years ago as he was married to Diana whose son Donnie is married to my sister, Michelle. He was always so nice and funny. He will be missed. Additional condolences go out to Donnie, Michelle, Emily, and Erin Graves, as Donnie knew Red since he was 19 and Emily and Erin considered him their grandfather. Prayers go out to the entire family.
