Uncle Michael was always very kind and loving. We thoroughly enjoyed being around him and Aunt Patsy. I feel heartbroken for Aunt Patsy, but know he's in a better place. I pray his service is full of God's presence and that it brings healing and comfort knowing he's with our Lord.

Michael was always a homebody but when he did come to family gatherings he was always very talkative and boy did he like the Florida Gators. Aunt Patsy is going to be well taken care of by us girls so dont you worry, I am sure you are looking down from heaven and seeing she is so loved. Hated you were in pain for so long but I am glad you are no longer suffering.

Michael ... i have so many memories ... all the way from when yall got home from your honeymoon ... wow!!!! was you mad at me for letting Patsys friends in yalls apartment ... for helping me with all my marriages lol ... always there for support ... thank you for all the home made treasures you've made me ... remembering the play boy magazines in the bathroom and that was your pride and joy lol ... being with you at your side your last days with us was a blessing for me ... trying to make you laugh at your worst pain and seeing you smile i will always treasure ... But most of all being with Patsy and Mom by your side and watching you take your last breath was so peaceful and knowing you were not in any more pain... We will see you again and I love you very much Go Gators Toni :)
