“ I met Carm in about 1975. He was a freind, confidant and all around fun person. We had laughs, sorrow, fun, bad tomes and good, but thoighr it all we remained freinds. Even though we had nlook t seen each other in a number of years we still had some contact tje last few years. His passing brings me much sorrow but also an abundance of great memories of the times we had together. R.I.P and may Kentucky Bluegrass and Spiderman live on in our hearts. See you in the next life old freind!!!!

“ Carm was a great man. He was loved by his family. He had a habit of being REAL, which is unfortunately rare in this life. He will be missed. If he wanted something he was unafraid to go out and find his own way. I will miss him. Praying for his family. Keep his memories alive.

“ Carm was my friend. I will miss him greatly. I enjoyed our many conversations at the Legion. He was a big man in a small package. Rest in peace, buddy
