“ How many people do you know that you could wake up at 3am and ask them to drive you on a 35 mile paper route? Someone you had only known for about a week. That is just the kind of person Diana was. She was one of the nicest people I ever met. She was my friend and neighbor for years, and I missed her terribly when she moved to VA. But, she was so happy there, that it made me apply for her. I am so glad that she was in my life. My condolences to Johnny, Alice and all of her family and friends.
I will miss her.

“ Diana was not just my friend she was family. We met almost 20 years ago at business school. I over heard her talking about how it takes her almost 2 hours to get to school so I butted in and said, “ Where in the heck do you live !?” Come to find out she only lived 5 minutes from me. I then offered to pick her up every morning, making her 2 hour trip on 2 buses and a train a 30 minutes ride in with me. We were forever friends/sisters from that day on. We loved to hit all the thrift stores in town and brag about the great deals we got. My family was her Virginia family and we enjoyed having her join us for all the holidays she fit in likes she'd known us all her life. 3 weeks ago she moved to Fl to embark on a new journey. That California girl didn't like the cold weather here in Va. Diana will surely be missed but will forever hold a place in my heart. RIP my sister.
