“ Harriet (Harry) was the best, a devoted woman of God. When times were rough Harriet was there at every given moment. Judy and I will always remember her and Pastor Browne and their friendship. She is in glory land with her husband at Christmas, what a great feeling it has to be for her.

“ It is difficult to find words other than to say she exemplified Jesus in her life and no doubt heard those glorious words, “well done good and faithful servant.” She was a treasure and blessing to many. Her love lives on. I am so glad I had the honor of knowing her.
