“ The one thing I remembered about my sister was that she always stuck for me when I was either made fun of or if someone was hurting my feelings, I loved that about her. We had our fights but we were sisters, it's life. I still think about her everyday and spoil my niece and nephew, enjoying their cute laughs and smiles. I loved her very much. She was the best and only sibling/sister I ever had.

“ I will always remember Jessica as a very gentle, soft spoken, sweet, and loving person. She was also very responsible to be so young, working and taking care of two babies. She was such a dedicated mother. I will always have deep respect and admiration for Jessica. I feel blessed to have had the privilege of knowing her. The Bible says to be as wise as a serpent and as gentle as a dove. That's what Jessica reminds me of, a sweet, harmless, gentle dove who has flown away to be with her Lord. We love and miss you Jessica. You will always hold a special place in our hearts. God Bless You!

“ Jessica and Cheri were the first people to come knocking at our door. They were so cute. Jessica was always the outgoing one, such a sweet girl. I enjoyed it every time she came over to visit. Jessica was a joy to be around and this world is a much sadder place for her leaving it. I pray for her and I pray for her family. It must have been so hard for her to leave those little ones, but, I'm sure God has a purpose for her in heaven. I hope she is looking down and smiling on the children, and hope she carries the memories of what a marvelous grandfather and family she had. She will always be in our family's prayers.

“ Jessica was the most gentle, beautiful little girl in the world. I thank God that she knew how much we loved her. The night she was admitted to the hospital, I took her in and stayed by her side while they worked her medical file up, The words that I said when I had to leave...the last words that I spoke to her ...was"I love you baby girl.."her reply was" I love you too. " Thank God for that memory. I whisper into Chloe's hair, "Your mom loved you so much" and I hold her tight and I never want to let her go.
