“ Jimmy spent much of his time giving to others, sharing his companionship, his generosity and helping any and all of us when we were in need. His heart and soul were one of a kind, all of those who shared a friendship with Jimmy and Jodi have been truly blessed. Jimmy will be greatly missed by those left behind but take comfort knowing he is now in the company of our great friends and loved ones who went before us. Rest in Peace dear Jimmy you will be missed.

“ This is hard for me to type as I have tears coming down my face, but Jimmy and I have so many memories together it's too much to type. Jimmy always helped me to get better at bowling. Jimmy and I always have a blast decorating for Halloween. I miss you so much and I know your looking down on all of us right now. I promise you that I will make this Halloween dedicated to you this year. I love you and miss you Uncle Jimmy.

“ I will never forget the day, after my long journey with cancer, that Jimmy walked up to me, gave me a hug, and told me how proud he was. That moment was so special, and stays with me always. I only shed tears of frustration that Jimmy could not have the same end result as myself. I am sure that he is now in a great place, enjoying great things/people, without pain or suffering. I am so proud of the battle you fought.....YOU are my hero.

“ I am so sorry for your loss Jodi. I have known you and Jimmy so long I feel like you guys are family. We lost a great man, a great friend and one hell of a bowler. And what I will miss the most is someone who would be brutally honest with me and tell me that I'm a crappy bowler and its not the bowling balls fault. I will miss you my brother from another mother.

“ Dearest jimmy, saying you'll be missed is an understatement at its finest. The smiles you put on Jodis face alone made those around y'all's day. Such a good man, with a heart of gold. Your memory will always live on. Go rest high!!

“ You can always tell alot about a man in how he treats his lady. No doubt he loved Jodie and in my opinion..a man of great character. I will think of you every time I hear a Steely Dan song. Rest in peace my friend, you put up one hell of a fight.

“ I had this cat named Bandit when Jimmy lived with us. In the living room was a square "party table" that Bandit would like to jump on. Jimmie would polished the heck out of and call Bandit. Of course the cat would come running and jump on the table and kept sliding till he went off the other side. We entertained our self many times at that cat's expense!

“ When Jimmy got his first 300, we bowled together in a mixed league. He sat down beside me in the bowling circle. You could feel the tension and excitement in the air. I started to talk to him, he was like a son to me, about anything and everything I could pull out of the air. Anything but bowling! Come 10th frame and picked up his ball and stood on the approach. I know the whole bowling house was either praying or had their fingers crossed. He did it! A perfect 300! He came back and gave me a big ole hug, and said, "Thanks for talking to me to ease my nerves!"

“ Jodi so sorry for your loss. Jimmy was more than a client. He was a friend. Loved when he came in for a haircut. We would talk about his work, my work ,your work, bowling (most of the time) or anything going on in our lives. He always left saying he was praying for my husband. Truly a friend. Will be praying for you.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. Dave wanted to share that he truly enjoyed Jimmy at the bowling alley and still remembers watching him bowl a 300 as he always admired his skills. Vivian and David Ritter.

“ It only feels like yesterday that Jody was just a young teen .And when she lost her mother I was so glad when she meet Jimmy. It was like they were suppose to be together. Jimmy had a kind heart And I know they loved each other deeply. Jimmy has left this earth but he will never leave our hearts as long as we are alive. My heart goes out to his family and Jody.

“ This was Jimmy's funny side. He could always make me laugh with his interpretation of somebody we both knew.
As much as we can say Jimmy is in a better place and no longer in pain. Let's remember all the fabulous wonderful times that we had with this great man. He had such a huge heart and loved with every piece of it. So giving, and true.
I will miss him so very much. But thank the Lord that I am a Christian and I know I will see Jimmy J again

Rest in Peace Dear Jimmy, give Mom and Ginny a kiss for me!

“ This Earth lost a great man. Heaven gained one! If you ever needed a helping hand, you didn't have to ask. Jimmy was there to offer, with a smile. I'm proud to call Jimmy my brother and best friend.
