“ I do genealogy and was looking up old neighbors and came across John’s death. I grew up with John (Butch as a kid) as his family lived diagonally across the street in Rochester, MI. He was always a nice kid but very shy. There weren’t very many kids in the neighborhood, so we generally all played together. It was such a simple time growing up in that time and neighborhood, I have many fond memories. Farewell “Butch”, May God cradle you in his arms. Tom Gunning
