

Mary Coletta Noffsinger

April 30, 1925 - January 9, 2020

Mary "Coletta" Noffsinger, age 94, died peacefully after a long and full life. She was a loving wife to the late Arnold Noffsinger, a caring mother to Denise Erwin, Jana Krause (Brian) and Beth Baumgartner (Anthony). She was a wonderful grandmother to Mallory Danks (Michael) and Michelle Hummel (Keith). It was special that she met her great-grandchildren, Archer Danks, Finn Danks and Everly Colette Hummel (her namesake).

Coletta lived a wonderful and full life. She was known for her beautiful hosta and day lily gardens, worldwide travels, her love of entertaining and skill at playing cards. She was a giving person and touched many people. Till the very end, she was true to her Irish heritage and had a beer every day.

“ My Mom was special to so many people. None more than her family. The best compliment people have given me is when they say "You are just like your Mom".
