“ Two whole years have passed by and I still don't live a day without thinking about you. Your sense of humor and the ability to laugh with you and tease each other will never be matched. Your 60th birthday has come and gone. The day you died has as well. You are now joined by my brother Michael Allen. Give him the tour, he was tired too. We had Big Mike, Little Mike and My Mike. Little Mike is grown with kids and is all that's left to carry on that legacy. Good stuff! God I miss you so much. I loved you to your last breath. My Pooh Bear.

“ Today we would have celebrated your 59th birthday. There is no measure to the sadness and loneliness since you left us. I love you always. Miss you so much Mikey.

“ Mike and I met September 3, 1982. He asked me out to a local baseball game that night. He was so fun, and a gentleman, and it was a great night. He asked me to marry him 2 weeks later. We married November 6, 1982. A small but sweet wedding, for 2 people who they said it would never last.
33 years and 8 months later, he lost his battle with the depression he had spent a lifetime battling. I loved him to his last breath, no matter what, I had always tried to be there for him. He loved God and I know God loved him too.
I miss you Mikey. I will see you on the other side my Love.

“ So sad to hear of Mike's passing. Met him in 1978 via the US Navy. He became good friends with myself and my two brothers and we resided together for some time. I recall Mike used to loan out his new car to Jim, my younger brother so he could go down to St. Pete to see his girlfriend and future wife. Had a great and generous heart. We had lost touch for years and only recently got together again. I will miss my friend and former shipmate. Rest in peace Mike.
Condolences to Courtney and Debbie. Please let me know if and when there will be a service. God Bless
