

Patricia Ann Sage

April 28, 1935 - November 19, 2017

Patricia Ann Sage, 82, of Winter Garden, Florida, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by her loved ones on Sunday, November 19, 2017.

Patricia, or Patsy as she was affectionately called by her family, was born on April 28, 1935 in Ionia County, Michigan, the first of seven children born to Clare Truman Eash and Beryl Awanda (Heller) Eash. She graduated Valedictorian at Lake Odessa High School in 1953 and married her sweetheart, Dean Sage, in January 1954.

After taking time to raise her daughters, she reentered the work force and was actively involved in her church community before moving to Florida. Pat worked at Walt Disney World for a number of years and earned the distinction of the prestigious award of Cast Member of the Year in 1990.

After retiring in 1999, the fiercely independent Patricia kept busy spending afternoons with her grandchildren, spoiling them as only a grandparent is allowed to do. She will always be remembered fondly as the sweet, kind woman with the twinkle in her eyes.

Those who will miss Patricia the most include her daughters – Dena Sage Rubeor and her husband Blake and Judy Sage Michaux and her husband Kurt, grandchildren – Brittny Faustine and her husband Ken, Austin Rubeor, Tyler Walter, Sydne Rubeor, Emma Michaux and Kai Michaux, great grandchild – Emilia Rose Faustine, siblings – Nancy Cook, David Eash, John Eash, Judy Bjork, Susie Fulsher and a host of friends and other family members including Tony and Dianne Walter.

She was reunited in heaven with her parents and Sister Sally.

A Celebration of Life will be held in Michigan in April.

The family wishes to extend their gratitude to the Gold Team at Cornerstone Hospice and Palliative Care for their kindness and support in her final days.

The family suggests directing memorials to Hospice or the Lupus Foundation.
