“ Ryan/Tyler never failed to smile when he saw me and he never failed to leave a smile on my face when we parted company. When he came into a room, he filled it - with his joy, his humor, and his love. He filled the room with himself and there was always enough of himself to go around. I don't know many people like Ryan. We hate to lose such rare treasures as this wonderful young man, but we are fortunate to have walked in his light, brief though it was that we did. Godspeed, Grand Soul.

“ I had the good fortune of being in Oliver with Ryan. (Widow Corney)
Each time he sang “Where is love”, he just melted my heart.. that beautiful face, so angelic. Rest In Peace Ryan. Keeping your family in my prayers.

“ My first memory of meeting Ryan was at your house for scouts. He didn't even know me, and he greeted me at the door with a big hug. I asked him why he did that, he told me “because your my friend Mikes dad. That makes u awesome”. He had no idea of my status. He just welcomed me with open arms & such warmth. I will cherish those memories. Just wanted to share that with you and let u know if u need anything, please don't hesitate. I love you guys! Sending healing & warm prayers.

“ What a goofy, kind, smart and fun young man. Whenever I spent some time with Tyler I would undoubtedly giggle - he was infectious! I will hold on to my memories though my heart is broken. Hoping Allison, Charles and Jesse will begin to heal with the help of time.

“ Tyler will always be my first #1 boy and holds an irreplaceable spot in my heart. I have countless memories of a wild and carefree boy with a heart full of love and an infectious smile that lit his whole face. From singing the boys to sleep in the hallway to homework and legos, Nubble Lighthouse to lake sleepovers, day trips, overnights, movies, board games, plays, birthdays and holidays I feel blessed to have counted you all family. Forever remembered, always in my heart, I love you.

“ Ryan your laugh was awesome. You would always come out and walk Ollie with me at night or you would wait for me by your car for me to come outside. You will forever be in hearts. P.S your parking spot will always be your spot.

“ I didn't get to spend a lot of time with the boys as they were growing up, Michigan is a little far from New Hampshire. My favorite memory of Tyler is the last time I saw him. Quite a few years ago Charlie brought the boys home to Newberry. I went out to Mom's house on Red Camp Rd to see them. Even tho he didn't know me well he gave me a hug when we got there. We had a day of visiting, eating and playing croquet. It was one of those "best day ever" days. When it was time for me to leave he gave me a great big bear hug. A special memory of a special young man

“ Hey Tyler. I love you so much. I remember when we 1st came to America and we got introduced to the Mitchell family and their boys were so young that every time we slept over he had me read bedtime stories. It was so much fun and we went to your house to play with water balloons and having an amazing bonfire and climbing up to the tree house that your father built. You will always be in my heart my sweet sweet boy.

“ I remember seeing you on Main Street after you graduated. I was halfway through junior year and remember how happy you looked. We talked for about ten minutes or so. You had this way about you that made me and others feel welcome and warm. I'll miss that. Ryler, you will not be forgotten. Your warmth and welcoming aura will stay with all of us.

“ My favorite memory of him was when he was probably in 4th grade and I was the popcorn lady at Conant Elementary School here in Concord. He was sitting by himself reading something like War and Peace and has all these snacks with him. He comes up to me and says " Mrs. Toumpas Do you think I could have some popcorn but I don't have a quarter to pay for it because my parents are saving all their money to send me to college" Give that boy an Oscar May his memory be eternal.

“ I remember first meeting Tyler in first grade in Ms. Ellis' class all those years ago. He was always so bright and full of energy, a wicked nice guy, accepting of everyone. In Cub Scouts I remember seeing how into music he was and how much he loved the outdoors. Later on in Elementary school he starred in so many of the school plays and absolutely loved it... Then in High School having English classes with him, he was so eccentric about what he was currently reading and wanted to tell people about it. He was such a passionate and caring person.... Rest Easy man, you'll be missed.

“ I first met Ryan while stage managing for Oliver. Believe me when I say that he was always one to keep you on your toes. Energetic, inquisitive, and naturally gifted in so many ways. Over the next several years I grew very close to the Mitchell family. Eventually having them become my second family. Ryan was a brother to me. I will always think of him as such. Always ready w/ a joke and a laugh, eager to share his latest discovery. I have spent Christmases, Thanksgivings, birthdays, and movie night's with the Mitchell family, and i don't know that I can truly express how much each one of them has meant to me. I miss you, bro, and love you.

“ I met Ryan/Tyler when he was a boy (then called Ryan) when he won the title role of Oliver in the musical of the same name when produced by The Community Players of Concord, NH. My memories at that time were of a rambunctious, clever, interested, curious and active boy. He was a quick learner and did a great job with that big role, his first on stage. He continued to work with The Players on and backstage so I got to watch him grow up, first into a great teenager, and then a wonderful young man. He and his brother Jesse delighted in showing me their very nice treehouse. He was always ready with a smile and a hug and a story or question. He made an indelible impression on me, and I will remember him always, and fondly. My heart goes out to his mom, dad, and brother, whose loss is unfathomable. You are not alone, our love is with you. “ We met Tyler about 2 years ago. The first time I met him, I took him duck hunting with me. He had a very inquisitive mind and ask very good questions about Duck hunting and the history of Hatteras island.
He will be remembered by me as a bright and genuine young man. My heart is with his family in this toughest of times.
