

Samuel M. Rednour

January 3, 2017 - November 21, 2017

The Rednour family of Leesburg Florida are happy but saddened to announce the passing of their father, Samuel M. Rednour, Tuesday 21 Nov 2017. In so doing he gleefully joins his wife Doris and other family members in the mansion of our Lord Jesus Christ. His accomplishments in life are many and included serving in the US Army Air Corps, a successful career in photography, as a trucking owner operator, husband, father and US Postal worker, to name a few. He enjoyed his life, his wife, flying, fishing, playing cards with family members, motorcycles, traveling around the world with his wife Doris and sharing the word of Jesus. He is survived by his 4 children: Randy, Ronnie, Linda, and Rex, and foster daughter Janis Raye. He has 11 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren. Viewing is scheduled for 0930 to 1100, 29 Nov. Funeral and gravesite services to follow. Persons wishing to express their condolences may send flowers to Page-Theus Funeral Home in Leesburg Fl. or make donations to the women's care center of the First Baptist Church of Leesburg. Even in his death he thought of others, and of sharing the word of Jesus Christ.

“ Uncle Sam was supportive, generous, and a wonderful host. He and Aunt Doris opened their home to my family more times than I can count. My senior year in high school, my friends and I along with Mom and Dad took a trip to Leesburg. We stayed with Uncle Sam and Aunt Doris. My friends and I were allowed to borrow one of Uncle Sam's cars and go to Disney World. Which at the age of 18 was very exciting to do without adults. I appreciate feeling comfortable at their home and in the town of Leesburg because of Uncle Sam and Aunt Doris.

Thank you,
Laurelyn Goralczyk (Rednour)
