

Sharon K. Solt

August 31, 1943 - August 14, 2015

Sharon K. Solt age 71 passed away Friday, August 14, 2015 in Leesburg, Florida. Sharon was born in Bend, Oregon and moved to the Leesburg area from Port Townsend, Washington. She was a retired travel consultant who was known by those closest to her to be fun, outgoing and loved by all. She was an active and vibrant person who loved to dance which led her to be a regular line dancer. Sharon was spontaneous and loved to take quick local trips, and as a former travel consultant she and her husband traveled and cruised to many exotic and beautiful places, but she was happiest spending time with her family as wife, mother and grandmother.

Her survivors include her husband of 36 years Roger; daughters – Cherie Shelton of Boise, Idaho and Kailani Sherban of Yakima, Washington and a step-daughter – Gwyn McFadden of Richmond, Virginia; step sons - Steven and Scott Solt both of Cumberland, VA; sisters – Patricia Cruz of Yakima, Washington and Beulah Bushman of White Swan, Washington; and 6 grandchildren.

Page-Theus Funeral Home and Cremation Services, Leesburg, Florida has been entrusted with all arrangements.

“ Roger and family - It is so strange how fate plays its hand. I received an application at our coffee shop today for a Christopher Solt, and I immediately thought of you, who were our neighbors in Yakima. I put Steven's name in for a search and there I saw the very sad news of Sharon's passing. I used to babysit those many years ago. I adored you and your family. My thoughts are with you. “ Dear Roger, Cherie, Kailani and family, So sad to read of your loss. My memory of Sharon goes way back to the 60's. I remember her with her with such fondness. Her special giggle and infectious smile. We shared a lot in our travel agency years. I'm only sorry that we didn't hook up again these past years. My heart goes out to you. Mary Snyder of Yakima, WA
