

Wanda Mae Hartmann

April 5, 1930 - May 12, 2018

Wanda Mae Hartmann, 88, of Leesburg, Florida passed away on Saturday, May 12, 2018. Wanda was born on April 5, 1930 in Pontiac, Michigan to the late Norman and Alma Worden. She relocated to Florida in the year 2000 from Waterford, Michigan.

Wanda was a generous and caring woman of faith and dignity. She loved her family and always made them her priority. Her grandchildren each knew that she held a special place in her heart for them. In addition to time spent with family, Wanda's hobbies included playing cards, board games and cooking. She enjoyed and was known for entertaining friends and family. Wanda's favorite time of year was Christmas. She loved and took great pride in her Christmas decorations. Often people would come to marvel at her beautiful Christmas decor.

She is survived by her sons Dennis L. Cahow and Alan K. Cahow; grandchildren Heather Voight (James), Teresa Lowe (Matt), Melissa Cahow, Michael Cahow, Wesley Salisbury (Sabrina), Natalie Pierson (Jim), and Doug Harbert (Michelle); and 11 great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her husband of 45 years Donald M. Hartmann who passed away May, 2017. As well as Leonard K. Cahow, her first husband and father to her children, who passed January, 1969.

Service will be held at 2pm Saturday, May 19th, 2018 within the chapel at:

White Chapel Memorial Park Cemetery
621 W Long Lake Rd
Troy, MI 48098

In lieu of flowers donations may be made in her memory to The Alzheimer's Association, <https://www.alz.org/>.

Online condolences may be sent at pagetheusfuneralhome.com. Arrangements under the care of Page-Theus Funeral Home and Cremation Services, Leesburg, Florida.

Comments

“ We will remember Wanda as a wonderful friend and neighbor of ours in Florida, and are very happy to know her last days were spent with her family and the possessions which gave her treasured memories
Rest in peace, Wanda.

Marge and Jerry Boskey

Margaret Boskey - May 13, 2018 at 10:25 AM